

Frequently Asked Questions

When does my personal excess insurance with Equisure start and end? The coverage starts when The Ohio Horseman's Council receives your application and money. Coverage ends January 1st of every year.

What if I join in June? The premium and coverage are the same should you join in January or June. You would have coverage for 7 months if you joined in June and coverage for 12 months if you joined in January. In both cases the coverage will end January 1st.

How can I get a copy of the policy? Saddle Partners of America has a copy of the policy, your council has a copy of the policy, or you can get a copy from Equisure.

Do I get anything showing I have insurance coverage? Yes, Saddle Partners will provide an evidence of insurance (a brief summary of coverage's, conditions and exclusions) which will be distributed to members only by your council.

How would this insurance apply if I have homeowners insurance? This policy is excess over any other valid and collectible insurance. If you have primary insurance coverage this policy would be excess over that insurance. If you have no insurance, this policy would become primary.

I am a trainer or run a horse breeding operation, does this insurance cover me? No, coverage for businesses and business related activities are excluded.

If my horse is boarded away from my residence do I have coverage? Yes, you are covered for bodily injury and/or property damage for an equine related incident you are held legally liable for.
